

JANUARY CATCHING UP WITH JASON

2025 was incredible - now let's send 2026 into Orbit!

What a year 2025 has been! Together, we hit one of our biggest goals—1 MILLION subscribers.

That's huge! And it's all thanks to YOU—our amazing fans and the investors who believed in us.

It's the boots on the ground — the people sharing, promoting, and cheering us on — that made this dream a reality. You didn't just support us, you helped us crush it! This year was packed with unforgettable moments:

Two hosted weekend cruises that brought fans together for fun, friendship, and casino excitement. And guess what? We're just getting started! In 2026, we're planning even more cruises, including longer itineraries hosted by Dita, Robyn, Janice, and Jade, while I'll stay behind to create great content for you.

We had our first-ever Group Pull and not only was it WILD—it was a WIN! The energy was off the charts, and we can't wait to do it again.

We also took Your Luck Has Arrived to the next level—dropping $10,000 prizes like it's nothing. In 2026, we plan to take this exhilarating game nationwide. More cities, more chances, more rowdy fun.

And here's something new: we're launching Destinations by Jason, our very own Travel Advisor wing! With this new service, we'll help our fans even more by sourcing discount travel and vacation packages. It's all about making your adventures bigger, better, and more affordable.

We're not stopping here. We want to send this channel into orbit, and we need YOU to power the lift-off. Throw your ideas at us and let's make 2026 the year of MAX BET energy.

The next chapter is going to be a FULL SCREEN of fun. Jackpots, bonus rounds, and unforgettable experiences all year long. Let's Get Rowdy and make 2026 the best year yet!

Jason

NOW INTRODUCING:

DESTINATIONS BY JASON

Over the years, I've had the privilege of getting to know so many of you. We've shared laughs, the thrill of the win, and the community we've built together. But as I look at my own life, I realize that the most "jackpot" moments aren't found at a table or a machine—they are found in the quiet moments on a plane, the shared meals in a new city, and the look of wonder in my daughter's eyes during our travels.

I know how fast time moves. As a father, I feel how fleeting these years are, and I've made it my mission to build as many father-daughter memories as I possibly can. I want that same thing for you and your families. That is why I am so proud to introduce Destinations by Jason.

Beyond the Casino Floor

While we all love a good casino trip, I wanted to create a space that focuses entirely on your "off-the-clock" life. Whether it's a milestone anniversary, a summer break with the kids, or a quiet getaway to recharge, I want to help you get there. My goal is to source the best travel discounts and vacation packages so that cost never stands in the way of a memory.

Let Us Carry the Stress

I know that planning a vacation can feel like a second job. The endless tabs open on your computer and the logistics of coordinating schedules can turn a dream into a headache.

I want to take that pain away. By using our travel advisor service, you can skip the complexity and go straight to the excitement.

Expert Assistance Made Easy

With Destinations by Jason, you'll have access to your travel needs: Airfare, Car Rentals, Hotels & Resorts, Vacation Packages, and Cruises

Where Will You Go?

My team and I are here to plan any trip you can imagine. We're not limited to just one type of getaway. We can help you:

- Plan a romantic European honeymoon.
- Fulfill that retirement bucket list trip to Asia.
- Find the best way to head back to the Midwest to visit family.
- Or simply find a quick weekend escape to recharge. As a huge Disney fan myself, I do personally believe Disney parks and Disney cruises offer a special magic for families, and we specialize in those trips, too—but the world is truly your oyster, and we're here to help you explore every corner of it.

A Gift to Our Community

Because this is about giving back to this community, I am offering this service entirely for free to our fans for the time being. While we may charge a small fee in the future, right now, I just want to see you all out there exploring the world and making memories with your loved ones.

Life is short, and these moments are precious. Let's start planning something beautiful together.

*With gratitude,
Jason*
