

WOW... OCTOBER, WHAT A MONTH!

We just wrapped up another epic weekend at Foxwoods, and I have to say — it was wild. The energy was off the charts, and the wins? Even crazier.

Big shoutout to the winners of the YHLA drawing — each of them got $10,000 in free play, and let me tell you... they turned their free play into some serious wins. They were talking bets they've only dreamed of making — and they crushed it!

Then there's our 1 Million Subscriber Celebration winners... I mean, come on. That trip was next level. From a private dinner with me to getting spoiled at the spa and treated like true VIPs — it was the kind of experience you never forget. I loved every minute of it, and I hope they did too.

The weekend was such a blast that I've decided — we're doing it again...twice! That's right, two more Your Luck Has Arrived drawings are happening only at Foxwoods! We will have a $60K Hot Seat on November 29th and a $50K Hot Seat on December 27th! I'm all about keeping the excitement going and giving back to the amazing community that's supported me every step of the way.

Also, don't forget to register for Slot-a-Con 2 the weekend of January 23rd, 2026. SPOTLIGHT

ROYAL CARIBBEAN

Royal Caribbean is an impressive cruise company with several multiyear awards, almost 30 ships, and over 300 ports worldwide. Due to how much there is to go over, we have decided to focus on one signature destination, one ship, and a review of a trip by one member of the MHP team: Janice.

Destination Highlight: Coco Cay

Coco Cay is one of the six premier destinations Royal Caribbean has to offer. It is a private island that focuses on enjoying the wonderful Bahama climate and geographic features. The island is home to seven distinct beaches, with a few of them being exclusive, for you to enjoy. From South Beach which is one long beach, to Harbor Beach which is a calm harbor, there are plenty of options to enjoy the clear waters of the region. There are also five pools scattered across the island if you want to cool off away from a beach...

Aside from the sunbathing, there are plenty of food and drink options. With 9 dining spots and 20 bars, you won't go hungry or thirsty anytime soon. Skipper's Grill and Chill Grill are complimentary dining areas which serve American food, Captain Jack's serves bar food and drinks, and Snack Shack has a few locations around the island offering finger-food are highlights. The Floating Bar is a floating tiki hut within wading distance of South Beach, there is a swim-up bar at Oasis Lagoon which serves the signature drink of the island (Coco Loco), and Wacky Seagull & Wacky Seagull Jr. are sister bars located on opposite ends of the island. Those were the spotlight bars for the island and yes they do make the classic fruity and refreshing drinks we all love to have on vacation.

If you choose to purchase upgrades, there are three options: Thrill Waterpark, Hideaway Beach, and Coco Beach Club. The waterpark is great for children according to many visitors, however be prepared for long lines and possibly buying a ticket for yourself if you need to accompany them. Hideaway Beach is an adult-only beach featuring a live DJ, pizza, and a swim-up bar.

Ship Spotlight: Wonder of the Seas

The Wonder of the Seas is one of the world's largest ships. Naturally, such a large ship has plenty of amenities and activities for one to do. There are four pools, private casitas, and the adults-only Solarium when it comes to experiences on the ship. In regards to activities they have shows which are onstage, aerial, ice and water shows, each with their own performance areas. Boleros is a popular Latin nightclub, SHUSH! Silent Party is a silent disco with headphones only, Playmakers Sports Bar & Arcade, Spotlight

Karaoke, Ice Skating, and Flowrider are all other activities aboard the ship. Not to mention a trip to Coco Cay on every 3-4 night hop.

When it comes to food and drink, Wonder of the Seas has more than 15 dining spots and 10 bars. The three big name restaurants are El Loco Fresh (Mexican), Sorrento's (pizza), and Windjammer buffet (international food and a huge menu of 200+ dishes). If you upgrade, you can eat at more options including the more luxurious Izumi (hibachi & sushi) or 150 Central Park (high end).

Jason himself is hosting a group cruise aboard this ship on May 29 to June 1, 2026. You can book with us here

Personal Review: Utopia of the Seas review by Janice

I recently took a personal vacation aboard Utopia of the Seas, and it exceeded all expectations.. Their casino lives up to their reputation as the largest at sea. The main casino allows smoking in addition to two spacious non-smoking areas far from the main area. All three areas have a good selection of machines and tables, including my favorite: Huff n' Even More Puff.

The food here is outstanding, especially with the lobster tails served at the lunch buffet on Day 1. They have round-the-clock food options too if you are someone who is awake early in the morning or at odd hours. My top pick for specialty dining was Hooked, where the oysters and seafood dishes were incredibly fresh and flavorful.

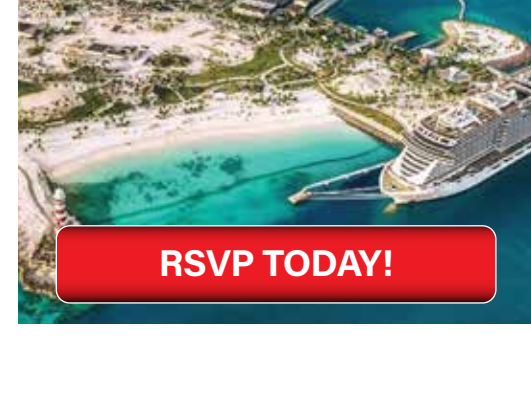

Their shows are wonderful with high production value. Top-tier performances with beautifully designed sets, great costumes, excellent choreography, and dare-devil water shows. I highly recommend the musical show All'in not to be missed.

The ship's layout is thoughtfully designed with the Royal Promenade being the central shopping hub with restaurants and shops taking up the entire 5th and 6th decks. Central Park on deck 8 is another hub but has an outdoor park feel and with a greater focus on gourmet food and socialization. The ship has a fun atmosphere fueled by the music selection to present an upbeat vibe. Service is very consistent, with bartenders and crew always attentive and well trained.

I cannot recommend Utopia of the Seas more. It is an exciting ship with plenty of luxuries and moments to be had.
